DEDICATION

MR. CARL ANGELICA

We who have known his influence call him teacher, friend, and coach. His inspiring leadership in the classroom and on the athletic field has prepared us to travel the highway of worthy living.

With grateful appreciation we dedicate our yearbook to Mr. Carl Angelica.

EDITOR'S MESSAGE

In this age, where high speed and multiple means of transportation play such an important role in our everyday lives, "The Highway of Youth" is an appropriate theme for the Class of '56. Our theme symbolizes the path we have all traveled from the day we entered grammar school to this moment that we leave the halls of Enfield High to begin our journey to achieve higher goals.

For the past four years, we have traveled along this highway together in our quest for knowledge, learning our lessons, and enjoying ourselves as well. Each of us paused on the path, long enough to absorb some new-found interest, whether it was our school work, athletics or extra-curricular activities, only to return to the highway to continue the forward progress with our classmates.

At times the path may have looked dark and narrow, but we steadfastly journeyed onward to satisfy our curiosity for knowledge. Now, as we near the end of our youth we are grateful to have something that will not let us forget our wonderful sojourn.

This book is a permanent record of our journey as a class and as individuals on "The Highway of Youth". It is a reflection of all the achievements, activities and important events that have meant so much to us. It is an opportunity to express our gratitude to those who have guided us along this highway. We have approached the crossroads and are indebted to those who have prepared us to leave "The Highway of Youth" and enter "The Highway of Life".

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

CLASSMATES:

For many of us the most memorable four years of our lives have come to an end. We, as students of Enfield High School, have written another chapter in the history of our community. The road on which we have journeyed has had many branches, each leading to some aspect of scholastic achievement. These achievements would not have been possible without the cooperation and guidance of our parents and instructors. I say to you, my classmates and friends, God bless our parents and teachers for having the patience and fortitude to guide us through these years. Taking a cue from them, may we resolve in future years to lend the same helping hand to students following in our footsteps. As we separate to pursue our well-planned futures may we always remain true friends with honesty and dignity as taught to us at Enfield. Let us never forget, too, that only in a democracy, which we in the U. S. A. enjoy, can we receive the free unadulterated education such as we have received at Enfield, and in gratitude let us strive to maintain and improve on our wonderful heritage. "We have journeyed the pathway; the highway lies before us".

BENJAMIN MATTHEW ALAIMO

November 27, 1938

Academic

Ben has always been a cheerful boy in and out of school. For four years Ben has been an active youth with membership in the Latin Club, Sportsmen's Club, and the Hi-Y. Ben was an honor student in his Freshman year, and he also received the Latin Award in that same year. Ben is a very ambitious boy because he not only keeps up with his school work but also holds a part time job after school. He has served on the following committees: Sophomore dance committee, Junior prom committee, and the Senior-Freshman Reception Committee. Ben plans to enter college after graduation.

SANDRA ANN ALAIMO

April 4, 1939

Academic

A well-known and respected member of the Senior Class is San. Always smiling, she accepts much responsibility in class projects. San received the Freshman English Essay Prize, has been on the honor roll for four years, was a representative to Student Council four years, and was a Varsity Cheerleader three years. In her Sophomore year, she was elected Class Secretary, and Delegate to the Silver Bay Conference. In her Junior year, San participated in the annual school play and served as the charming Hostess of the Farewell Prom, June, 1955. San's qualities of leadership were appreciated as she assumed chairmanship of prom and dance committees, and was elected Editor-in-chief of the Echo. San anticipates a nursing career.

MICHAEL JOHN ARNONE

August 8, 1938

Academic

Mike is a boy who is well-liked by everyone. In his Freshman year, he was on the honor roll and he won the Annual Latin Award. To follow the trend he also joined the Latin Club. Mike is an ardent follower of athletics, participating in Intramural Basketball. If you ever want a good argument, just go to Mike and try to criticize the Yankees. As a participant in social activities, he served on the Senior-Freshman Reception and on many dance committees. Mike's future plans are to enter college.

ROBERT VICTOR BALTRONIS

March 11, 1938

Vocational

Bob, good-natured and pleasant in and out of school, has been a member of the FFA in his Junior and Senior years. Maintaining a part time job and tinkering with his car take up most of Bob's spare time. His cheerful and pleasant manner along with his co-operative spirit will help make him a success in his selected Air Force career.

ELEANOR MAE ANGELICA

November 26, 1938

Academic

Ellie, joyful, smiling, ever full of fun, makes all her classmates beam with joy, too. She has a very good eye as seen in her basketball ability. She has worked on prom committees, in Y-Teen work and was a tabulator for Boys' Basketball. Eleanor has the sparkling way of getting to know people, and her friends are many. Her basketball ability has earned her a place on the Girls' Varsity team. She plans to enter the Armed Services after graduation.

THOMAS PHILLIP ARVANELY

January 30, 1939

Academic

Very active in extra-curricular activities and a high honor student throughout his school career, Arv is one of Enfield's proudest sons. Athletically, socially, and scholastically inclined, Arv thoroughly enjoyed his four years. He played his trombone in the orchestra, and he sang in Glee Club and the Echoes. He helped with business problems on various play and prom committees and he was also seen on basketball courts, baseball and football fields. Arv was manager of varsity baseball, football, basketball, intramural basketball and Hi-Y in his Senior year. He was appointed Co-Sports Editor for the "Student Ticker" in his Senior year. Another honor bestowed on Arv in his senior year was that of feature editor for the Yearbook.

ALICE ROSE BOURQUE

September 20, 1938

Vocational

An incessant flow of chatter and a gay burst of laughter introduce Alice, one of the most fun-loving members of our class. An ardent sports fan, Alice follows our school teams. She has played on our Girl's Basketball Team. She was a member of the Junior Red Cross, the Y-Teen Club, and the Homemaking Club. She has also served on several prom committees, and was Vice-President of the Student Council. After graduation Alice plans to do secretarial work in which her pleasant personality and cheerfulness will be valuable assets.

ALBERT ROGER BOUDREAU

August 30, 1938

Vocational

A friend to all, Al is a popular member of our class. He served on the school play committee for three years, the Senior Prom committee, the Senior-Freshman Reception Committee, and the Ticker Staff. Al's favorite pastimes are dancing and ice skating. Al is always greeting everyone with a friendly smile and neat appearance. He plans to work after graduation.

FRANCES LOUISE BOURQUE

April 28, 1937

Vocational

On the field, on the court, and in the classroom, Frannie is recognized by all her classmates. As captain of the Cheer-leading Squad and a member of girls' intramural basketball for two years, she has displayed her athletic ability and vivacious personality. She has been a Student Council Representative for three years, and as a Sophomore, she was Vice-President of our class. She was also a member of the Y-Teens and Home Economics Club. This year she served on the Senior-Freshman Reception Committee. Frannie's plans after graduation includes secretarial work.

JOAN EVELYN BODLEY

February 16, 1938

Academic

Intelligence, integrity, ambition — these are but a few of the words describing Joan. Joan has won many honors and has made many friends. In her Freshman year, Joan was Class Secretary. She won the Latin Award. For three years, Joan was President of the Y-Teens Club, and she has also served on all our prom committees. An able pianist, Joan has devoted her talent by being accompanist for the Glee Club and the Echoes. Her intelligence is her most prominent virtue. Joan has been a high honor student throughout her school years. She was Echo Business Editor, the Editor-in-chief of the Ticker and most important, she won the D.A.R. Good Citizenship Award. Joan plans to enter college to study music.

JOYCE THERESA BARTHOLOMEW

June 19, 1938

Vocational

One of the most charming girls in our class is Joyce, called "Joe" by many of her friends. Joyce is an active member of the Glee Club and has helped on all the prom committees. She was secretary of the Senior Y-Teens, which seems very proper, for Joyce plans to be a private secretary after graduation. Joyce excelled in shorthand, winning the Gregg Shorthand Award in both her Junior and Senior years. We are sure that Joyce will long be remembered at Enfield for her willingness to work.

BETTY ANN BONITO

January 9, 1938

Vocational

Betty is one of the wittiest girls in our class. Her voice and laughter will always be remembered throughout the halls of Enfield. Interested in school activities, Betty was a member of the Y-Teens Club, the Drum Corps and the Junior Red Cross. She has accepted responsibilities by serving on prom committees and on the Advertising Committee for the school play. Betty plans to be a secretary after graduation.

JOAN DALTON BEATTIE

November 13, 1938

Vocational

Joan came to us from Hartford High in the beginning of the Senior year. She has been very active in the athletic field, participating in girl's basketball and baseball for three years, in addition to being a member of the Archery Club. In the social circle too, she has contributed her time and energy to the Drama Club, Glee Club, Junior Red Cross, Girl's League, Hipha Mu Theta, and the school paper. Before she moved here, she was also on the Dictatorial board for the classbook. Joan is a very pleasant person and easy to talk with. She has all the qualifications for a secretarial career, her chosen field.

JOSEPH JAMES CALCASOLA

December 17, 1938

Academic

Joe is a cheerful well-mannered boy, respected by both students and teachers. Joe also finds time to do well in his studies. He was, in addition, business manager of the school play. He has been active in the Hi-Y and played football in his Sophomore year. We all enjoyed Joe in the leading role of the school play, "Beauty and the Beef", in his Junior year. He has also been host for the Junior Prom, basketball manager and a marshal at graduation in 1955. Joe plans to enter college next fall.

MARY LUCILLE BURKE

January 4, 1939

Vocational

Vivacious, happy, kind and sympathetic, Mary greets each fellow-pal with a hearty hello and a cheery smile. Quite musical, too. Besides contributing her talent to the school orchestra and Glee Club, for four years, and the Enfield Echo Choral Group, for three years, Mary has been a three-year delegate to the All-State Music Festival, and a leading character in the school operetta, "The Mikado." In her Senior year, Mary won a gold pin for perfect speed typing. The Latin Club, Homemaking Club, Junior Red Cross, Y-Teens and the School Play have all had the pleasure of knowing Mary. She plans a secretarial career.

WARREN REINHOLD CARLSTEN

November 4, 1938

Vocational

A familiar figure in the halls of Enfield is Warren, a boy who is liked and respected by all his classmates and teachers. Warren is very conscientious and does his school work and all projects to the best of his ability. Warren is very fond of music and can always be heard singing melodiously in the Glee Club. Warren's favorite hobby is farming. He is a member of the F.F.A., having joined in his Junior year. After graduating Warren plans to enter the service.

ELAINE DOLORES CHMURA

November 18, 1937

Vocational

A well-known girl around Enfield is Elaine. She has been very active on all prom committees, especially in the publicity department. Elaine has contributed to various clubs and activities during her four years here at school, and her interest in basketball has made her an ardent follower of sports. Her many clubs and activities include Ticker Club, Glee Club, Y-Teens, school play committee and Social Editor of the Ticker. Elaine plans to enter the business field as a private secretary.

SAUL CLIMAN

March 30, 1938

Vocational

Saul was a member of the Glee Club for three years, a member of the school band for two years, and a member of the J.V. football team for two years. Even though he holds a part-time job, Saul has always found time to help out on class activities. Saul was a member of the following committees: Farewell Prom committee, and the Senior-Freshman Reception Committee. Saul has always been a cheerful boy. His plans for the future is to join the United States Air Force.

JUNE ANN COUSINEAU

December 6, 1937

Vocational

June is well-known at Enfield because of her wonderful personality, cheerfulness and courtesy. Her activities during this time include the Drum Corps, Freshman Y-Teens, Glee Club, Advertising Committee for the school play. She has been on the honor roll. After she graduates from Enfield she would like a position as a secretary. Always reliable and conscientious she will more than fulfill her duties in her chosen occupation.

ROBERT WALTER CONGROVE

July 20, 1936

Vocational

"Jake" is a boy with the warm personality, the pleasing smile, and the consuming interest in baseball. He has been a star pitcher at Enfield for four years, and, if possible, "Jake" would like to continue in baseball as a professional player. He has been very active in other things such as the Future Farmers of America, the Hi-Y Club, football and basketball. If possible, "Jake" hopes to continue his education in college.

JOAN FRANCES CARENZO

August 12, 1938

Academic

"Laugh, I thought I'd die!" And you will be laughing too, if you stay in Joan's company for even one minute. Joanie's wit is just one of the characteristics of her pleasing personality. Behind that sense of humor are the virtues of determination and ambition. She was a member of the Ticker Club, Junior Red Cross and Glee Club during her first years at Enfield. She took an active part in the Y-Teens and was elected Secretary in her Junior year. Joan has served on all the committees of everything our class has sponsored. Her plans for the future include nursing, and after that — well we all know what every girl's wish is.

RUTH EDNA CROTEAU

January 11, 1939

Vocational

"Hi Rita!" "No, I'm sorry I'm Ruth". That phrase is very familiar to all of us because in our senior class we happen to have a pair of identical twins, who can confuse us more easily than anything else. Since her name is under the picture we can assume this is Ruth, or Ruthie as she is called. Ruthie's hobbies are dancing and sewing. After graduation, she plans to do office work.

MARTIN HILARY CORBETT

August 16, 1938

Academic

Martin is well-known around Enfield as the boy with the warm smile and the friendly personality. Coming here midway in his high school career, he entered Enfield knowing only a few students, but with his amiable qualities, he now has very many friends. His part time job occupies most of his time after school, allowing him very little time to join in school activities. This job, and his initiative, will help him to reach his goal as an electrical engineer.

RITA ANNETTE CROTEAU

January 11, 1939

Vocational

Although she is one of the quieter members of our class, Rita is always ready to join in the fun or lend a helping hand. Rita holds a part time job and still manages to keep her marks up to good standing. She is very cheerful and has a shy smile, which wins her many friends. Rita plans to do office work after graduation, where her pleasant personality and calm efficiency will be valuable assets.

ELEANOR MARIE DISTAZIO

November 25, 1937 Vocational

The pretty girl with the long, wavy hair . . . that's our Eleanor, who is very well-known for her attractiveness and her well-planned wardrobe. As a member of the Y-Teens for three years, the Senior-Freshman Reception Committee, and all our prom committees, Eleanor has displayed her co-operative spirit and willingness to work. Her pleasing personality and sociability helped to earn for her an enviable and memorable honor, as we elected her to serve as Hostess for our Senior Prom — "Mistletoe Magic". Eleanor plans to do office work after graduation.

ROBERT JOHN CRANE

January 18, 1937 Academic

We all know Bob as the well-dressed, and smart boy with the pleasing smile. During his four years at Enfield, he has done good scholastic work, and participated in group activities. In his Freshman year, he was a member of the Hi-Y Club and for three years, he has contributed his singing talents to the Glee Club. As a Junior, he was Business Manager of the annual School Play. Bob hopes to become a pharmacist or a chemistry teacher.

KENNETH WILFERD DEVIN

February 2, 1938 Vocational

Kenny was an honor roll student for three years. He has been a member of the F.F.A. for three years and a member of the Glee Club for one year. Kenny always took his studies seriously and has saved his relaxation for after school hours. One can always find Kenny with his little green Ford and a car full of friends. Although Kenny has no specific plans for the future, it is beyond doubt that with his ability to study he is bound to succeed in whatever field he selects.

HAZEL THERESA DeGRAY

November 13, 1938 Vocational

Hazel started her Freshman year here with us, but during her second year she left for Suffield. I guess she missed us because she came back in her Junior year to stay and graduate with us. She has a gracious manner and one can find her very easy to get along with. As for her helping others, Hazel is one who will always co-operate and assist anyone who might need assistance. She is very ambitious and that quality we're sure will help her a great deal in fulfilling her ambition to become a secretary.

GERTRUDE H. DAVENPORT

April 7, 1938 Academic

Everyone knows Gertie as the popular, good-natured girl who would do anything for anyone. Gertie's fun-loving personality and invaluable quality of leadership has won for her the respect and admiration of all her classmates. Gertie has been a member of the Student Council for three years, was Secretary of the class in her Junior year, and was a delegate to Laurel Girls' State. A capable student, Gertie has achieved honor standing for four years. She had the leading role in three of our school plays, proving her remarkable acting ability. Efficient and ambitious, Gertie has served on various prom committees, was Assistant Business Manager of the School Play and Photography Editor of the Echo. Her future plans include engineering assistant.

ERNEST EDWARD DENBY

August 15, 1939 Academic

Ern is a quiet, reserved lad who is a good-natured, well known classmate. Ern was a member of the Senior-Freshman Reception Committee. He was the Sports Editor of the Student Ticker, and he was an active member in the Hi-Y. Ern has been a Pro Merito member for four years. In his Freshman year he was, a varsity baseball manager, a member of the Latin Club and a member of the orchestra. In his Sophomore and Junior years he was varsity football and basketball manager. Ern found time to be on the play committee during his Sophomore year. With his efficiency and character, Ern should succeed in his future plans of going to college.

ANN CHAPIN DARLING

June 19, 1938

Vocational

In the upper third of her class, this delightful, witty and remarkable personality is Ann. Her last name? "Darling", which surely suits her. Her delightful manners and her initiative have earned her honors for four years, and the achievement award in bookkeeping in her Junior year. Her ability in leadership was recognized when she was elected President of the Hazardville Y-Teens in her Junior year, and the Secretary of the Hazardville Tri-Hi-Y in her Senior year. Her charming presence was also welcomed in the Junior Red Cross, Homemaking Club, Senior-Freshman Reception, Junior and Farewell Prom Committees, Homeroom Booster Committee, and as one of the honored usherettes at Class Night and Graduation for the 1955 graduates. She plans to enter Bay Path.

EVAN JOHN EVANS

November 11, 1938

Academic

As President, Evan has led the class for the past three years. A versatile student and an outstanding athlete, Evan was a delegate to Boys' State and to Governors' Day at the Eastern States Exposition. This year he received the Football Award for Most Valuable Player. He brought honor to Enfield when he was elected Vice-President of the Connecticut Federation of Student Councils. He has been on all our prom committees, has played in the school orchestra and this year was elected to the Yearbook Staff as Sports Editor. His personality, sense of responsibility, and invaluable qualities of leadership has earned for him the Elks' Leadership Award.

JILL ELLEN FITZGERALD

June 29, 1938

Academic

Jill is well-known at Enfield for her cheerful disposition. An industrious worker, Jill has put forth her efforts on such projects as the school play and a number of prom committees. Her extra-curricular activities include Glee Club, Y-Teens, Latin Club, Junior Red Cross and participation in such sports as tennis, basketball and bowling. Scholastically able, she has been an honor student and plans to make teaching her career.

CAROLE THERESA DIGHELLO

October 11, 1938

Academic

"Digs"? Yes, we all know her. Every-one at one time or another has had the opportunity to speak to this sparkling and bubbling, dark-haired girl. Many may have seen her diligently typing away for the "Student Ticker" as exchange editor of the newspaper. Every time there was a vacant spot in the Senior Prom, Farewell Prom, Junior Prom or school play committees, or a homeroom booster collector, Carole volunteered. She was a member of the Latin Club, Junior Red Cross, Y-Teens, drum corps, school play committee, and orchestra meetings. Scholastically, Carole has been on the honor roll for four years.

THOMAS JOSEPH DOYKER

August 3, 1938

Academic

Tom is a hard worker who made the Pro-Merito Society for two years. One can be sure if Tom takes a job he will do it well. If one needs a hand, he is always right there. During the summers he worked in tobacco and in the mill after school. One of his hobbies is sports, particularly baseball and bowling. His good humor and charming smile go a long way and bring enjoyment to his many friends. We wish him much success in the future as he plans to join the Marines and attend college later.

ROBERT STEPHEN FIORE

March 23, 1938

Vocational

Bob, a boy of medium height with a dark complexion, has participated in varsity football during his Junior and Senior years at Enfield. "Spud" showed his willingness by being on the Junior and Senior prom committees. He has a quiet sort of manner. He makes friends easily. His plans for the future are to join the United States Air Force after which he will prepare for some sort of trade.

PATRICIA HELEN FRANGIAMORE

October 28, 1938

Academic

Pat, pleasant and cheerful, is one of the most reliable members of our class. Her willingness to lend a helping hand is shown by her participation in the Junior Red Cross, school play and prom committees. Musically inclined, Pat has been a member of the Enfield Echoes and a four year member of the Glee Club. Efficient, capable and ambitious, Pat plans to enter the field of nursing.

ARTHUR FELIE, JR.

November 7, 1937

Vocational

That tall, good-looking classmate with the engaging smile is Art. Most of his time in school is given to Aggie Class. In his Junior year, he represented Enfield at the University of Connecticut meat judging contest in which he won first prize. In his Senior year, Art was a representative from Connecticut at the convention in Kansas City. Here he received second prize for meat judging and third prize for livestock judging. Art loves outdoor sports, with hunting and fishing leading the list. His ready smile and sincere personality have won him many friends. After graduation Art plans to enter the farming field.

ALFRED JOSEPH GAMACHE, JR.

January 8, 1937

Academic

Alfred is a very friendly person. He is easy to get along with. Just about everyone in the Senior class knows Fred. He plans to go into some type of business of his own. He has a hobby at home that keeps him occupied at all times. His hobby is records and recording. He loves music, especially organ music. Fred collects records of all kinds, mostly organ. His records range from jazz to the classics. He is a quiet, generous person. With his disposition and kindly attitude Fred will achieve lasting satisfaction in life.

IRENE HELEN GADOMSKI

June 24, 1939

Vocational

"Rene", one of our most intelligent seniors, came to Enfield with a definite outlook on life — especially school life. She believes, and one can tell by her marks and achievements, that one should put his utmost ability and time towards schoolwork to make himself complete, happy, and successful when he is venturing into this wide world. Her honor rating has been outstanding throughout her four years. "Rene", was also on prom and play committees, Junior Red Cross and Y-Teens work, and a member of the Glee Club. After graduation "Rene" plans to do secretarial work.

ALAN WILLIAM FRANCESKI

January 5, 1938

Academic

An honor student for three years, Alan was very active in extra curricular activities evidenced by the fact that he was in the Latin and German Clubs in his first two years at Enfield, played in the orchestra, and was a member of the Hi-Y in his senior year. In his Junior year he was representative to Boys' State. Al plans to attend the University of Connecticut to major in pharmacy.

NANCY LOU GATES

November 29, 1937

Vocational

Nancy is a new student at Enfield this year. She came to us from Rockville High. At Rockville she was a member of the Student Council, secretary of her class, and a member of the Junior Red Cross, and the Art Club. We all notice her experience in basketball, the result of her fine playing on the basketball team at Rockville, where she was a member of the Girls Athletic Association. Her immediate plans are undecided with marriage as her ultimate goal. We are sure that with her personality and sociability, she is sure to succeed in all her future plans.

JAMES PETER GARINI

September 9, 1938

Academic

With his happy-go-lucky manner and keen sense of humor, "Garn" is a favorite among all his classmates. He served as Vice-president of our class during his Freshman year and has proved his dependability throughout his high school years. Enthusiastic about sports and music, Garn managed our Varsity basketball and baseball teams during his Sophomore and Junior years and for three years he was a member of the Glee Club and Orchestra. He has also served on the Junior, Senior and Farewell Prom Committees. Garn plans to go to college.

NINA ELIZABETH GIACALONE

January 16, 1938

Vocational

The cute little black-haired girl is Nina with a fine personality and the ability to win friends. Nina has studied very hard during her four years at Enfield, preparing to become a secretary. Nina was a member of the Y-Teens in her Freshman year and in her Junior year she was on the Junior Prom Committee and served as secretary of the Photography Club. Nina has done well during her stay at Enfield, having been on the honor roll each year. With this record, Nina will surely succeed in her life's work.

JEAN SALLY GLEMBOCKI

October 2, 1937

Vocational

Jeanie has been active in sports during her four years at Enfield. For three years she participated in Intramural basketball and was a tabulator at varsity basketball games. In her Freshman year she was in the Drum Corps. As for social activities, Jean served on the junior and farewell prom committees, became a member of the Y-Teens and did a good job on the Senior-Freshman Reception Committee. Jeanie always has a smile for everyone and is a very pleasant person to chat with. At the moment and for the last two years, she has worked at the "local meeting spot" otherwise known as Friendly's. Jeanie's ambition is to become a secretary.

FRANCIS HENRY GRABINSKI

Beautiful curly hair is what they all say! This distinguishes Pat, along with her friendly personality and vivacity. Pat is very ambitious and has served on prom committees, school plays; she played in the Mikado and was a member of Latin Club. She has also done a creditable job as a Parade of Youth Correspondent, and as a member of the Class Night Committee and Class Picture Committee. Her familiar voice has rung out in Glee Club for four years, Echoes for two years, and in the All-State chorus. A Pro-Merito for four years she has proved that it is possible to serve and learn. Her ambitiousness, alertness and warm personality are valuable assets which will prove successful in the future.

JOHN WILLIAM HODGINS

October 20, 1938

Academic

Tall, dark, and handsome are the most appropriate adjectives to describe Bill. We have seen his familiar face in orchestra, Glee Club, Echoes and Hi-Y. He did a wonderful job in the operetta "The Mikado", and an equally good job on the baseball team in "55". He makes friends readily and has shown his ability in leadership as President of our Class in "53". He, like all boys, has a first love, and that is his car. A familiar sight is to see him dash here and there in it! We will all remember him and his warming smile, and we wish him success in whatever he chooses for his future vocation.

FAITH LOUISE HUBBARD

July 25, 1937

Vocational

Mm-mm-mm something smells good! That must be Fay down in the Home Economics room cooking again. She loves to cook and has studied Home Economics during each of her four years besides being in the Home Economics Club in her Freshman year. She also received the Freshman Improvement Prize. Taking time out from cooking, Fay has served on the Junior and Senior prom committees. She looked "real cool" in the Bermuda shorts and blouse she made for the Fashion Show in her Junior year. Fay served at the Baseball and Football Banquet for two years.

JUNE LOUISE JONES

June 25, 1938

Academic

Small, but very active, she has sung in the Glee Club, and Echoes for four years. Her pleasing smile and friendliness made her a wonderful hostess for the Junior Prom in "55". June was a member of the Latin Club for two years and she also contributed her talents to prom committees. An avid sports fan, June is a familiar sight, cheering our team in all sports. Her hobbies include skiing, swimming and boating. After graduation June plans to enter Bay Path Junior College where she will major in a secretarial course.

NANETTE CLAIRE KEERY

October 1, 1938

Academic

With her lovely voice, Nan is a valuable member of the Glee Club and her church choir. She has entertained us often with her musical talents in the Music Festival, the Mikado, Echoes, and Senior-Freshman Reception. Nan was also a member of the All-State Chorus in Hartford. In addition to this we hear Nan playing her bass drum or cymbals in the band. Nan was in the School Play, her Sophomore and Junior years. She also served on the Junior, Senior and Farewell Prom Committees, in addition to being a member of the Student Council. After graduation Nan plans to enter the nursing profession.

JOAN CAROL KING

August 6, 1938

Vocational

A "good sport" best describes our Joan. She has participated in various types of sports in Enfield throughout her four years, her favorites being basketball and swimming. Joan's energy, however, was not all exhausted on the basketball court, for she proved her efficiency in various clubs and activities such as Y-Teens, Glee Club, Junior Red Cross, and the Senior-Freshman Reception Committee. Joan is a friend to all, a fact which accounts for her many friends. We know that her pep and vigor will prove useful in her future years as an airline hostess, a career in which good sportsmanship is an asset.

CHARLES GEORGE KNIGHT

December 25, 1937

Academic

Charlie is one of our big, husky, crew-cut, and blue-eyed seniors standing about six feet. He loves to hunt and has quite a collection of guns and hunting equipment. You can see him anywhere by his bright red and black '50' Ford convertible and his "Hazardville Fire Dept." sign on the front bumper. Charlie is a very good-natured person and always willing to help someone especially those who have to go home from school and don't have any way of getting there. He plans to join the Army after graduation and then study engineering.

LORRAINE ANN KORECKI

September 5, 1938

Academic

Lorraine, or "Shortie", as some of her friends call her, has been a joy to her many friends and classmates. Her smiling face never passes a person by without some recognition on her part. She came to us in the middle of her Freshman year from Hartford High and has increased Enfield's spirit with her talents in art, her invaluable aid on prom and play committees and her excellent scholastic rating. Lorraine was one of the six Seniors in the Senior class who competed in the National Merit Scholarship Foundation Exams. She also received an honorary certificate for her achievement in stenography.

SANDRA ELIZABETH LEAF

December 14, 1938

Vocational

Sandy came to Enfield in her Junior year. Previous to coming to Enfield she attended Burlington High and Westfield High. There she was a cheerleader, a member of the Dramatics Club, the Glee Club, and a Student Librarian. Sandy proved her ability and desire to participate actively without delay when she entered Enfield. Her willing smile and charming personality were discovered immediately, as she joined many group activities. She served on the Junior and Senior Prom Committees, The Student Ticker, the Senior-Freshman Reception Committee, and was a member of the Glee Club. Sandy plans to work in a bank after graduation.

HERBERT ROBERT LINCOLN

January 9, 1939

Academic

Herb is a quiet, good-looking fellow who is always around trying to help. Seemingly shy, he is really friendly, and has a wonderful personality. Herb lives on a farm and does much work at home, which doesn't leave him very much time for school activities. You evidently know this if you have seen him around Hazardville in his "hot" Farmall tractor. After school, Herb plans to join the U.S. Air Force and will try to get his wings by becoming a pilot.

ANNE SHIRLEY LEPORE

May 1, 1938

Vocational

JOSEPH JAMES SCUTNIK

December 7, 1937

Academic

As you walk the halls of Enfield High, you are certain to see a tall blonde young man waving and smiling. He is our Joe. Joe has been here for four years and has achieved the mark of a person who is willing to learn. He usually achieves the goal he has set. Joe has participated in school activities, playing varsity football his last two years, and playing in the orchestra for four years. We will always remember Joe and his winning smile and eagerness to help others.

NANCY ANN SHERMAN

April 30, 1938

Vocational

Nancy, our art editor of the Yearbook, is a native of New Hampshire. Her cute accent and her broad smile greet all her classmates. Nancy has been active on prom committees, and she was a member of the Ticker Club in her Junior year. With an inclination to write and draw, Nancy was an active participant in newspaper work, and she was art editor of the "Student Ticker" in her Junior year. Her future includes college and eventually a career as an executive secretary.

WILLIAM HENRY SPANSWICK, JR.

July 8, 1938

Academic

"Span" is a well-liked boy who has become very popular during his four years at Enfield, where he has made friends with just about everyone. He was Vice-President of the class in his Junior year and has been on all the prom committees. Span's record in sports is outstanding. He has played Varsity Basketball for three years and for four years he has been an outstanding pitcher on the Varsity Baseball Team. In his Senior year, "Span" played well as an end on the football team, and this year he was co-captain of the Basketball Team. He hopes to play sports at college which he plans to attend next year.

JAMES WILLIAM SHIELS, JR.

November 23, 1938

Vocational

"Who is the new boy? He's tall and good-looking!" That is what we heard for about a week in our Junior year, when Jimmy entered the halls of Enfield for the first time. Before coming to Enfield, he attended Wethersfield High, where he participated in intramural basketball and soccer. He is quite well-known to all now, for Jimmy has made many friends. His beguiling smile and fun loving manner have been noticed and appreciated by many students. Since coming to Enfield, he has been a member of the F.F.A. Club and was on the F.F.A. Basketball team. His immediate plans for the future is to join the Armed Forces.

ANDREW CLIFFORD SMITH

February 13, 1939

Vocational

"Butch" has been a member of the Future Farmers of America since his Sophomore year. He has no immediate plans for the future. However, his keen interest in motorcycles and the enjoyment of working on his own, will no doubt, be continued. After his service in Uncle Sam's Army we should not be surprised to see him "down on the farm."

FRED JOHN STROINEY

June 10, 1939

Academic

Fred hopes to go on to school to AIC where he will major in mathematics. His goal is to teach math in a small school. He is interested in amateur photography which takes up his spare moments, when he is not busy practicing the accordion, doing school work, or working at his part-time job. His interest in the accordion has enabled him to help out the school orchestra with his playing in each of his four school years. Another interest of his that has been a great help to this school is his conscientious work in the projection crew. He is also doing a fine job as President of our Hi-Y, keeping things running smoothly.

ELLEN TANNENBAUM

May 15, 1938

Vocational

During our Junior year we received a new member to our class. Ellen came to Enfield from Commerce High, where she had been active in various clubs and had served on many committees. During these last two years at Enfield she has made many new friends. At Enfield she followed the Vocational course, which she had previously taken. Ellen's plans after graduation include entering the business world and becoming a private secretary.

ANTHONY FRANK SPAZZARINI

December 9, 1938

Academic

One of the most popular boys in the Senior Class is Anthony, called "Spaz" by everyone. "Spaz" has that special knack of being able to win friends with his hearty smile, pleasant personality and sense of humor. Whenever anyone is in trouble or needs help, "Spaz" is sure to be there to assist. "Spaz" has a hobby of working on cars, and he can tell you just about everything one needs to know about them. With great ambition "Spaz" is studying hard and planning to take an engineering course in college.

JAMES AVIDIS TATOIAN

October 3, 1938

Academic

Jim is one of the up-and-coming Senior boys. He is very important in the music program of the school, having been a member of the band and Glee Club for four years plus playing a part in "The Mikado". He was a member of the Latin and German Clubs and was awarded the Latin prize in his Freshman year. Cheerful, dependable Jim is a very active member of the Hi-Y. His capability won him the honor of attending Boys' State in his Junior year. With his four years on Pro-Merito, he is assured of success as he goes on to college.

JOHN JOSEPH TRUIOLO

April 8, 1938

Academic

Jack does not plan to enter any college. He thinks he will join the Navy. If he likes the Service he will try to make a career of it. He, like so many of us, would like to see as much of the world as possible. Jack thinks the Navy might be just the organization that will help him to achieve his ambition.

NORENE MARY TRACEY

June 25, 1938

Vocational

The girl with the feather bob and a smile, that's Norene. Although she came to us at the beginning of the Senior year, she became an active member of the Senior class by taking part in a skit for the Senior-Freshman Reception and the Christmas Prom. She came from Hardwich High and attended South Hadley High where she was Vice-President of her class; co-captain of the cheerleaders, and, she played softball. She was a member of the student Ticker and Pep Clubs. She has served on dance committees. Norene's desire is to become an airline hostess and we're sure that with all her charm and vigor she will make even the sickest of passengers feel well again.

JOAN MARY TROTTER

August 23, 1936

Vocational

Joanie is our Home Economics girl. She has taken Home Economics ever since her Freshman year, and has loved every period of it. We are quite proud of Joanie, too, because this year she achieved fame by winning the local Betty Crocker contest. While a Freshman she was also in the Drum Corps. In her Junior year she participated in the fashion show that was put on by the Home Economics classes. Joanie's plans for the future is what every girl wishes.

HOWARD ERNEST TAUBNER

July 11, 1937

Academic

Howie, always cheerful and pleasant, can be usually found operating the projector or tape-recorder. Besides being a member of the Projection Club for three years, he was active in the Hi-Y during his Junior and Senior years, and he was a representative to the Youth and Government Conference in Hartford. He also was a member of the Sportsmen's Club, Glee Club and Echoes. Howie plans to enter the University of Connecticut in the fall.

JAMES FRANCIS TRIA

July 29, 1938

Vocational

Jim is a very easy going good-natured type of person. He likes people and gets along with everyone. He has helped on the play committees for four years, and he has also served on the Senior Prom Committee. For sports, he participated in the intramurals in his Sophomore and Junior years. He has two ambitions, to travel across the United States, and to be a contractor. Whatever he does, we're sure he will be successful, for he has the gift of making people feel happy and carefree.

MICHAEL ANTHONY UNDERWOOD

March 29, 1938

Vocational

Mike, one of the quieter members of our class, is really very friendly once you have become acquainted with him. Not saying very much, he goes along taking everything in his stride, always willing to help his classmates. His "calm, cool, and collected" manner is his most outstanding characteristic. Throughout his four years at Enfield, Mike has taken the Vocational course, and after graduation he plans to enter the business field.

LYNDA LEE WEBER

February 6, 1939

Vocational

Lyn with her cheerful and friendly way is well liked by all her companions. With an admirable scholastic record, Lyn is one of Enfield's best business students. She has participated in the Glee Club, Prom Committee and was a member of the Operetta cast. Always ready to join in the fun, Lyn supports every activity. Her laughter and perseverance will aid her in future life. She plans to enter Bay Path Junior College.

MELVIN JOSEPH WHITE

February 18, 1939

Academic

Melvin, nicknamed Mel, is very friendly and co-operative with everyone in our school. His ambition is to become a great band leader, composer, and teacher of music. New and different songs are a challenge to him and are easily picked up and brought forth with many techniques to simple songs which come out in new beauty. Melvin has participated in the entertainment for many church and school social groups. He plays with many different bands and also has his own "combo" of musicians. In his spare time Melvin enjoys working on his hobby, which is collecting popular songs on his high-fidelity recording system.

WILLIAM EDWARD WHITE

May 17, 1938

Vocational

Bill has worked very hard during his four years at Enfield in both his school work and extra-curricular activities. He has been in the Glee Club and has helped out in the school play. Bill has always put his whole heart into everything he did. Everyday Bill can be seen working at the A&P, where he is familiar figure. Bill also worked in a store which his family once owned. We all believe that Bill, with his winning ways and hard working attitude, will accomplish any goal that he picks out.

ELEANOR FLORENCE WARNER

December 3, 1938

Vocational

Eleanor originally came to us from Springfield, Mass., where she started her school education at Technical High. When she moved to Thompsonville she enrolled as a Sophomore at Enfield. "Snookie" has a wide circle of friends. After graduation she hopes to secure a position of secretary with some government service. Our best wishes to her for happiness and success.

MITCHELL JOHN WOJNAR

June 14, 1937

Vocational

One of America's future farmers, Maxie has been active in the Future Farmers of America since his Sophomore year. He is a regular "all-around fellow," who leads a happy-go-lucky sort of life. As a lover of square dancing he may be seen doing fancy steps at a nearby lake resort during the winter. In his more serious moments he is handling the responsibilities of his folks' vast acreage.

DONNA LEE WILE

June 20, 1939

Vocational

Quiet, cute and diligent is our Donna. Although quiet, she has been active in homemaking club and on various dance and prom committees. Donna's complexion is the envy of all and she has surely caught the eye of Prince Charming, as her left hand shows. Donna's ambition is (you guessed it!) Marriage! She has taken the secretarial course and is planning to be a secretary after graduation and before entering the marriage status.

CLIFFORD ALAN WOOD

July 31, 1938

Academic

That boy with the look of ambition is none other than Clifford Wood, better known to us all as Cliff. Since his Freshman year he has been a faithful member of the Hi-Y and the Sportsmen's Club. He is ambitious, indeed, for Cliff works after school and has kept honor standing throughout high school. We are sure that he will find success in the field of industrial design, which he plans to study.

IRENE MARY WOLODKO

October 21, 1937

Vocational

Reney, with her friendly manner and pleasant smile, is an attractive member of our class, well-liked by everyone. She has served on all the prom committees, the Senior-Freshman Reception committee and she was a member of the Home Economics Club. This year she was elected to the Yearbook Staff as the Senior Editor. For four years, Reney has been a member of the Glee Club where her lovely voice has been a great asset. Reney plans to enter I.B.M. school after graduation. We know that her future will follow the same path as her personality — bright and happy.

LOUISE MAY WYNZEN

October 3, 1938

Academic

With her striking smile and friendly ways Lou has made many friends during the past four years at Enfield. Because of her lovely singing voice and her interest in music, she was chosen to represent Enfield in the All-State Chorus in her Junior year. She is a member of the Glee Club and Enfield Echoes and she also took part in the operetta. A hard working student with lots of ambition and energy, Lou plans to study radiology after graduation.

RICHARD JAMES YOUNG

October 5, 1938

Academic

An honor student for three years, Richard has been very active in extracurricular activities, evidenced by the fact that he played intramural basketball for four years, was a member of the Latin Club in his Freshman and Sophomore years, and was a member of the Sportsmen's Club during his last two years of high school. In his Senior year he was also treasurer of the Hi-Y Club and he played Hi-Y basketball. An avid sportsman, Richard enjoys hunting and fishing. His plans for the future include college and a career in Journalism.

CLASS HISTORY OF 1956

As we look back to our Freshman year, we remember how far away 1956 looked and what an eternity those four years appeared. Now that we are seniors, we wonder where those four years have gone and realize that the period has been merely a brief interval in our lives.

Let us look back to that memorable day in September, 1952, when we entered this school as Freshmen, and let us glance at some of the highlights of that year.

We remember with pleasure the cordial welcome given to us by the seniors at the Senior-Freshman Reception. Following this event our class was officially organized with the following officers: Bill Hodgins, President; James Garini, Vice-President; Joan Bodley, Secretary; and Fran Johnson, Treasurer.

We were proud to have Gertie Davenport and Bill Hodgins represent our class in the annual dramatic production, "Brother Goose". Our class also held the distinction of leading in the sale of tickets for this school play.

Sandra Alaimo brought new honors to our class by winning the Freshman English Essay Award and Joan Bodley received a "Summa Cum Laude" award from the National Latin Honor Society.

In early February the Latin Club Dance was held, an event largely attended and greatly enjoyed by the student body.

Our first year passed swiftly. June found us looking back on the wealth of subject matter which we had covered and feeling that we were now an integral part of the school organization.

After a summer vacation we returned to Enfield as Sophomores with the new feeling of the leaders we were destined to become. Evan Evans was elected President and his co-workers were Fran Bourque, Vice-President; Sandra Alaimo, Secretary; and Barbara LaJoie, Treasurer.

"Mr. Co-Ed" was 1953's stellar theatrical production and again Gertie Davenport was featured with such outstanding actresses as Nan Keery and Fran Johnson.

Our class was represented by Tom Arvantely at the famed All State Chorus held in Hartford.

Our Sophomore year offered us the first opportunity for our own dance, an informal affair held in late January but to us it had all the significance of a formal ball.

This year an operetta, "The Mikado", was presented under the able direction of Mrs. Ernestine Durrell. Our class was represented by such well-known singers as Fran Johnson, Mary Burke, Louise Wynzen, Jim Garini, Saul Climan, Jim Tatoian, Bill Hodgins, and Thomas Arvantely as business manager.

Our Sophomore year was a turning point in our high school careers. From here on we were really working to become an outstanding class.

As Juniors, we entered school much later than usual due to the extensive repairs on the building. We again elected Evan Evans, President. Others chosen were Bill Spanswick, Vice-President; Gertie Davenport, Secretary; and Barbara LaJoie, Treasurer.

Louise Wynzen and Mary Burke were chosen to represent Enfield at the "All State Chorus Meet" in Hartford.

The stage triumph of 1954, "Beauty and the Beef", starred Gertie Davenport and Joe Calsacola. This presentation was given to a large and appreciative audience.

Bill Spanswick and Frank Grabinski starred on the basketball court and helped Enfield win its second consecutive Valley Wheel Crown. Again Managers Arvantely and Denby handled the administrative duties with efficiency.

In the spring all attention was focused on our semi-formal Junior Prom, "April in Paris", with Gail Pare and Joe Calcasola, our host and hostess.

On the baseball diamond, Bill Spanswick and Jake Congrove helped pitch the team to a successful season.

We were efficiently represented at Boys' State by Evan Evans, James Tatoian, George Littlejohn, and Alan Franceski, while Irene Gadomski and Gertie Davenport shared honors at Girls' State.

The Junior year came to an end with the enjoyable farewell prom. As we entertained the departing Seniors, Sandra Alaimo and Mike Noto presided as host and hostess.

When we entered the halls of Enfield last September, it was difficult to realize that we were finally Seniors. The Senior-Freshman Reception was the first event of the year. Everyone worked towards making for the Freshmen, a fine introduction to Enfield High School.

The athletes of the previous year continued — George Littlejohn and Dave Martin were co-captains of the football team. Other gridiron stars were Joe Scutnik, Bill Spanswick, Bob Fiore, Evan Evans, Mike Noto and Frank Grabinski.

Evan Evans brought honor to our distinguished class by receiving the annual football award of Most Valuable Player.

The annual school play, "Life With Mother", was very successful. Virginia Liucci, Evelyn Heath, and Donald Morrison represented our class in this fine presentation.

As part of our winter activities, the Senior Prom gave us an enjoyable evening together. Eleanor Distazio and Kenny Devin presided as host and hostess.

Returning in January we had already elected Evan Evans, President; George Littlejohn, Vice-President; Fran Johnson, Secretary; and Mike Noto, Treasurer. These able leaders have led us successfully throughout our Senior Year.

Co-captains Frank Grabinski and Bill Spanswick led the basketball team on to a successful season. Tom Arvantely, Ernie Denby, and Jim Garini again carried out the administrative duties with efficiency.

Our cheerleaders, Margaret Scavotto, Gail Pare, Franny Johnson, and Sandra Alaimo, were led through their fourth consecutive season by Captain Fran Bourque.

The class is proud of Joan Bodley, who was the choice of the class and faculty for the annual good citizenship prize of the D. A. R.

Our last year has been so filled with activity that almost before we realized it our Washington trip was over and commencement has descended upon us.

Now that the days that we have traveled on the paths of Enfield have ended and we take a new road to our life ahead, we look back with fond memories of this, the Class of 1956, and say that this history is not ended, for greater things are yet to come.

CLASS WILL

Four years ago we seniors brought forth to Enfield High a new school system, conceived by our brains, and dedicated to the proposition that we seniors are to be idolized and obeyed.

We have been engaged in a great civil war between teachers and well-bred seniors, considering whether we, or any well-mannered seniors such as we, who are second Einsteins and are so dedicated to the welfare of Enfield High's delinquent undergraduates, will be able to ambulate in cap and gown to this stage.

We, tonight, have come to dedicate a portion of our unanimous talents as a final will and testament, in memory of our spirit and angelic souls, so sacrificed that old Enfield High might live on infinitely into the future. It is altogether compelling and proper that we should do this. The town of Enfield will little note, nor tax their brains to remember, what we say tonight; but it can never, never forget what we have done the last four years.

I, Joan Bodley, as attorney, highly resolve that we seniors shall not fade away in vain in behalf of your welfare and protection, but that this class, under Mr. Tatoian, shall have a new birth of freedom in the future, and that this student body governed for the students, of the teachers, and by the principal, shall not perish from Enfield High's scholastic and service records.

So being duly appointed to draw up this illegal will for the class of '56, I believe it to be my sorrowful duty to dispose of our valuable property to all miserly and parasitical undergraduates. Therefore I will read this unlawful document in public, and may Heaven help the receivers.

Item 1. To the partially-matured junior class we leave this Will, so they may copy parts of it for their Will next year. They'll surely need it!

Item 2. For the sophomores we leave our good examples of polite conduct in class, in the corridor, and especially in the cafeteria. No cutting ahead in line, now, sophomores!

Item 3. To Enfield's frosh we leave all the food and tons of paper they have been storing in our homeroom desks. It seems that the freshmen like to give us seniors daily presents!

Item 4. To the incoming freshman class we leave the baby carriages we used for other freshman classes. We hope YOU'LL act your age!

Item 5. To Mrs. Epstein and Mrs. Millett, we extend our thanks for their unselfish devotion to our daily cut fingers and bruises. We really had some bad bruises!

Item 6. For Mr. Tatoian we leave . . . hoping he enjoyed the peace and quiet we gave him the past four years.

Item 7. The class of '56 leaves a gallon bottle of dye to all the teachers to whom we have given grey hairs.

Item 8. We leave to our custodian, Mr. McLaren, a can of varnish to cover all the autographs we engraved on our desks.

Item 9. To Miss Malley, Mr. Tatoian's secretary, we leave a scrapbook full of our absence excuses. May they retain her memory!

Item 10. To our superintendent, Mr. Lee, we leave all the schools which we have attended in the usable conditions expected of them.

Item 11. Donald Morrison leaves his vocabulary list to James Stafford. We hope he is able to pronounce "antidisestablishmentarianism".

Item 12. Virginia Marrone and Elaine Chmura's glamour goes to Jean Rega and Jackie Stolz.

Item 13. Dave Martin and Billy Spanswick leave their athletic ability to Tony Romano and Karl Russotto of the junior class. Keep up the good work, boys!

Item 14. Joan Pelletier shall receive Alice Bourque's cuteness and blushing. Don't forget to blush, Joanie!

Item 15. Saul Climan and Art Felie leave their dreamy dance steps to Dickie Maggio and Howard Daly. You'd better consult Arthur Murray on the latest dance steps, boys!

Item 16. Donna Wile and Frances Bourque leave their cold cream jars to Lorraine Fowler and Rosanne Morgano. Maybe they'll come up with a new formula on "How To Discourage Skin Infections." They certainly do!

Item 17. Mike Noto leaves his soothing trumpet music to little Robert Cormier. We hope he won't distract Mr. Perfetto by playing a sour note.

Item 18. Thomas Arvantely, Ernest Denby, James Tatoian and Walter Kope leave their mischievous scientific minds to any future Einsteins entering Mr. Benoit's chemistry lab. One precaution, though. This school must remain standing.

Item 19. Frank Grabinski leaves his vitamin pills to little Peter Carenza and Joseph DiRosa. Maybe when you're seniors, you'll just reach the five-foot mark.

Item 20. Gail Pare, Joe Calcasola, Ramona Rolston, and George Littlejohn bequeath their love seats to Eddie Jekot, Helen Kineas, Matthew Porcello, and Nancy Bourgeoise. Don't wear the seats out!

Item 21. Eleanor Distazio, Irene Wolodko, and Frances Johnson bequeath their art to set examples of their beautiful and neat clothes to next year's models.

Item 22. The two chatterboxes, Pat Mills and Betty Bonito, leave their refined way of chatterboxing to Rosalie Gannuscio and Eleanor Madsen. Watch out, teachers! You're in for more.

Item 23. Any future U.S. President may learn parliamentary procedure from Evan Evans' examples. But first wait until Evan fills the U.S. position.

Item 24. Carole Dighello and Joan Bodley lend their undying friendship to any future Mutt and Jeff. But be certain you return what you borrow. Joan and Carole wish to continue being friends.

Item 25. Benny Alaimo, Joe Scutnik, James Rinaldi and James Garini bequeath their constant arguing to one person — Tony Scalia.

Item 26. Roberta Patsch and Lynn Beardslee are the lucky recipients of Sophie Liro and Barbara Hennis' basketball ability. Don't forget teamwork, Bertie and Lynn!

Item 27. Gertie Davenport leaves Enfield High for Ted. What did you say his last name is?

Item 28. Joan King, Mary Burke, Carol Seminara and Irene Gadomski leave . . . graciously.

Item 29. Ruth and Rita Croteau leave Enfield so the teachers won't see double. What's this? O'Neil twins next year? Poor teachers!

Item 30. Anthony Spazzarini leaves his friendly ways to Judy Seminara. Who else?

Item 31. The intelligence of Lorraine Korecki and Ann Darling is bequeathed to Carolyn Rypysc and Elaine Kislarewicz. Use it wisely, girls!

Item 32. Mr. Benoit's "Three Musketeers", Sandra Alaimo, Joan Carenzo and Margaret Scavotto, leave their giggles and constant flow of words to Jocelyn Davis, Joan Luczai and Rita Olschafskie. Better purchase a pair of earplugs, Mr. Benoit.

Item 33. Howard Taubner and Fred Stroiney leave their recording tapes and microphones to any junior who is interested in projection work.

Item 34. To Barbara Olschafskie, Barbara LaJoie leaves her cute blond hair, blue eyes and first name.

Item 35. Jill Fitzgerald, Pat Frangiamore and Pat Kinneer leave their cafeteria seats to any three juniors who talk more than they eat.

Now that we have disposed these items, we hereby appoint Mr. Tatoian as executor and administrator of our last will and testament.

In witness whereof, we have set and sealed our John Hancock this 18th day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Nine Hundred and Fifty-Six.

CLASS PROPHECY

I zoomed along to the twentieth reunion of the Class of 1956, anxious to visit with the gang before dinner at the Somers Inn.

We picked up ROBERT FIORE, owner of the monorail system and JIMMY GARINI and FRANK GRABINSKI, partners in a turbo-jet station, and then met ELEANOR DISTAZIO dashing out of her glass house, waving good-bye to her lovely family.

On the main street we found LORRAINE KORECKI, president of the World Secretaries Association, with her fellow members IRENE KLEZOS, JOAN KING, MARY LAZINSKI, and ANNE LEPORE, arriving from their New York Convention. NAN KEERY was their plane hostess, and they had enjoyed a fashion show, directed by SANDRA LEAF, in which JEAN GRAY of the NINA GIACALONE Model Agency featured air-conditioned clothes.

At the Futurama High School we picked up PAT KINNEAR, girls' athletic instructor. Pat told us that JIMMY RINALDI and WALTER KOPE are the proprietors of the Jet Appliance Store on Turbo Street and that BARBARA LAJOIE lives in Futurama with her husband and four children.

In the library, HERBERT LINCOLN was working on a book about his relationship to President Lincoln. His publicity agent, CHARLIE KNIGHT, handles the advertising for JENNY JUNIEWICZ, maker of Aunt Jenny's Rye Bread. GAIL KEARNS does his television advertising.

As we left for EVAN EVANS' Skyscraper Restaurant for a bite to eat, we passed ALFRED GAMACHE'S Office of Research in Atomic Medicine.

After our meal, cooked by microwave, we visited the nearby hospital at which PAT FRANGIAMORE and ELLEN TANNENBAUM have made great improvements in antibiotic drugs, and ALAN FRANCESKI'S experiments have advanced human life expectancy to ninety years.

Heading for the jet conveyor belt, we passed SAVERIO CARONNA'S newspaper office and saw the headlines: "ERNEST DENBY Swims the Channel" and "ANN DARLING Discovers Hypotramium." MARTIN CORBETT'S photograph of model ELAINE CHMURA is on the front page. Publicity agent CAROLE DIGHELLO, and talent scout ROBERT CONGROVE have headquarters in the office.

Across the street we saw RUTH and RITA CROTEAU, each with twin daughters, entering ROBERT CRANE'S fashion shop. JUNE COUSINEAU is Bob's buyer, HAZEL DEGRAY decorates the windows, and GERTIE DAVENPORT runs the push-button accounting department.

Leaving for the country, we found ARTHUR FELIE cultivating his land with an automatic tractor. In chatting, we learned that TOMMY DOYKER had invented an airplane that crosses the country in forty-five minutes, and NANCY GATES has a patent on an ultrasonic push-button launderer. And did you know that IRENE GADOMSKI does commercials for push-button foods on Station YXX?

Soaring aloft we saw KENNY DEVIN, General of the Interplanetary Army, and SAUL CLIMAN, Civil Defense Chief. In seconds we were at the Inn and found WARREN CARLSTEN the manager!

Greetings flew fast and furiously with each new group of arrivals. Here were LARRY QUINN and CHARLES ORGAN, inventors of electrical controls for climate. MICHAEL NOTO'S band has completed another 3D color television series. CAROL PARKER is Mike's secretary.

TOMMY MULLEN is back from the Moon in his flying saucer. He used JOHN RAVOSA'S phonovision to contact Earth. GAIL PARE' and PEGGY SCAVOTTO, specialists in ray gun treatment, cared for CAROL PATTERSON who broke her leg on her moving staircase. EILEEN RYDER, owner of Grant's store, is selling a geiger counter for measuring radiation.

In the Department of Agriculture, RAY ROMANO and FRANCIS NEWPORT produce concentrated food for animals. JOAN SAUER pilots mail-carrying rockets, with ALICIA RICHMOND as co-pilot and RAMONA ROLSTON as stewardess.

From the Thompsonville Press we learned much of interest. A huge picture of BENNY ALAIMO'S jet-propelled super market showed SANDRA ALAIMO operating the atomic-powered banana peeler. Besides an ad for BETTY BONITO'S exclusive beauty salon, was announced JOAN BODLEY'S forthcoming concert.

Two demonstrations were announced — JOAN BEATTIE is showing her Super Duper Writer Typewriter, and FRANCES BOURQUE is testing one of AL BOUDREAU'S supersonic motor scooters.

An ad for BOBBY BALTRONIS'S Red Moonaco Service Station showed MARY BURKE presiding over the office and MIKE ARNONE as chief salesman. Patrolman JOSEPH CALCASOLA received an award for saving MARCIA POTTER in a space raid.

ELEANOR ANGELICA and JILL FITZGERALD are busy school teachers and ALICE BOURQUE is training for her next professional basketball game with the team sponsored by the THOMAS ARVANTEL Research Laboratories. JOYCE BARTH-OLOMEW has been operating her highly successful Fi-Fi and Fu-Fu Dog Kennel.

BURTON HENRY, editor of the Press, praises Attorney BILL HODGINS and his secretary, PATRICIA HERRON, for their investigation of the invasion of Scitico by men from lower space. Famous for discovering a method for painless drilling of teeth are Doctor PETER HANCOCK and his hygienist, FRANCES JOHNSON.

The JUNE JONES Secretarial Institute has awarded honorary degrees to JEAN GLEMOCKI, ELIZABETH GNAP, BARBARA HENNIS, and MARGARET MATULIS.

JUDITH HANDLEY and FAITH HUBBARD have defeated LEROY JACKSON and GEORGE HEATH in the "Round the Universe" race for jets. Following the race with their atom-vision sets were George's sister EVELYN HEATH and SYLVIA GIACONE, personal nurse to the President of the Planet.

A sudden swish! announced the arrival of NORMAN MAYLOTT in his sleek jet-o-craft, with GEORGE MOWRY, president of a turbo-jet company. Accompanying them were Doctor PATSY MEYRICK, virus vaccine tester, and GEORGE LITTLEJOHN, inventor of a happiness pill.

GAYLE McCANN, wearing one of her original space dresses, and SOPHIE LIRO, prominent in the atomic cosmetic field, discussed the space-dos created by hair stylist PATRICIA MILLS for her model, JOAN CARENZO.

In a group about the punch bowl we found SAM MANCUSO, owner of the Skyline Jet Track; DAVID MARTIN, head mechanic for the Helibus Line; ROBERT MEYER, inventor of wrinkle-remover; ALLAN MITCHELL, executive in the United States Agriculture Department; and DAN MONDELLA, salesman for the Zoom Washa-Ironer Company.

VIRGINIA LIUCCI called on the pocket phone, her own invention, saying that she and VIRGINIA MARRONE, synthetic food dietician, were delayed because they stopped to see DONALD MORRISON, star skater at the Zip Theater.

MITCHELL WOJNAR arrived by helicopter for his weekly market garden supplies from WILLIAM WHITE'S Super Supply House. Mitch tells us to stop at LINDA WEBER'S Cafe Ritz to hear MELVIN WHITE'S Gay Notes with vocalist IRENE WOLODKO.

On Thompsonville's Fifth Avenue, we hear, is the office of famed architect CLIFFORD WOOD with a large staff managed by chief secretary DONNA WILE. Across the street is the R.A.Y. Building, home of sportscaster RICHARD YOUNG, whose secretary, ELEANOR WARNER, tabulates scores on the jet calculator.

In the municipal hospital, LOUISE WYNZEN demonstrates the gama-ray-a-scope with the help of nurses ANNETTE SEMINARA and NANCY SHERMAN. They are supervised by gama-ray specialist surgeon, Doctor JOSEPH SCUTNIK.

ANTHONY SPAZZARINI, top engineer with Hamilton Standard, tells us HOWARD TAUBNER has opened a drug store next to FRED STROINEY'S movie theater in the same building where Doctor JAMES TATOIAN has his dental clinic. Jimmy's office assistant is NORENE TRACEY.

CAROL SEMINARA and JOAN TROTTER are disc jockeys, advertising the atomic farm equipment of ANDREW SMITH and MICHAEL UNDERWOOD.

JAMES TRIA and JACK TRUIOLO run a chain of Florida gas stations. They brought news of BILL SPANSWICK, star Yankee pitcher, whom they saw during spring training in the South.

Up to date on what everyone was doing, we continued the reunion dining, reminiscing, and speculating on what the future may bring.

FOOTBALL ROUNDUP

This year the Green Raiders football team started off its season with a 13-7 victory over Amherst. After that victory they met defeat five straight times. The Raiders were troubled with the same problem that many other teams are troubled with every year, an inexperienced team. Even though the Raiders had a small squad and were plagued by injuries, they still tried to the best of their ability to bring victory home to their school. In many cases they were defeated in the final minutes of the game. Throughout the season the Green Raiders upheld the traditional dignity, honor, and the sportsmanship of Enfield High School.

BASKETBALL ROUNDUP

The Green Raiders had a very successful season in basketball this year. They had the experience, height, and the spirit which helped them to win a second place berth in the Valley Wheel League. The team played hard and always fought to win right down to the final minutes of each game. Again they participated in the Connecticut tournament only to be eliminated by a more experienced team.

Co-Captains Frank Grabinski and W. Spanswick.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL ROUNDUP

This year started a new phase in the athletic program of Enfield. To the interest and enjoyment of all, a Girls' Varsity Basketball Team was organized under the supervision of Mrs. Arlene Wills, our director of physical education.

Hoping to play in the Valley Wheel League, they found that they had organized the team too late, therefore they played independent teams.

Considering these factors, the team had a successful season of two wins and two losses.

Prospects of next years season look bright as we have laid the foundation for Girls' Athletics in Enfield.

Indications are a greater number of high school graduates are now enrolled in our colleges and universities than ever before in the history of our country. This is most encouraging, for it demonstrates a realization on the part of our youth, a desire to equip themselves better for the tasks that lie ahead.
